

Success story:

Name of the Farmer: Mrs. Dipty Deka
W/o. Mr. Banchit Deka
Village: Batabari, Dighirpar,
Darrang (Assam)

Mrs. Dipty Deka, has been living at Batabari village of Darrang district with her husband and two children, one boy and a girl. It was not easy for the family to carry on the life only with the wage of her husband. She enrolled herself as one of the beneficiaries of the “All India Coordinated Research Project on Goat Improvement” in the year 2009 with only two breeding does which has increased to 27 healthy goats inspite of selling her goats at regular interval. She could sell around 9 goats during this report period with an income of around thirty five thousand. The AICRP on Goat Improvement has played an very important role to support her in all possible ways and helped her a lot to improve her financial condition. Under the project, she has been receiving all the necessary veterinary cares viz. treatment, vaccination, feed etc. for her goats together with elite breeding buck for healthier future progeny. As a beneficiary of the project, Mrs. Deka has participated in various training programs encompassing different aspects of goatery development which has upgraded her technical know-how in goat rearing. With all the knowledge and technical support from the project, her goatery has boomed from an infant stage to a presently flourished condition.

Mrs. Deka is very happy and leading a peaceful and busy life with her goats. She is very enthusiastic and looking forward to maintain her goat to present numbers and to sale her goats at regular interval to uplift her economic condition.
