

Technology transfer and validation in field

- Average flock strength should be 5-6 for maximize the farmers' income in present farming system.
- Goat should be sold at 9 - 12 months of age for maximum profit.
- Growth has been improved, mortality under control, and income has been increased.
- Use of chopped straw as unconventional feed source
- Use of unconventional feed (chiku or safeda)
- Innovative feeding through made up of bamboo and net.
- Using of bamboo made platform and wooden cot in goat shed.
- Use of mosquito net to protect from insect and mosquito.

