

Package of practices

- Engagement of local personnel as enumerators and for day to day visit to the farmers for recording of data and monitoring of health.
- Regular supervision of activities of the enumerators by the entrusted Co-PI's in every fortnight.
- Regular visit by the Principal Investigator and other Co PI's of the project- atleast once in every month.
- Organization of awareness camp, goshti meeting, deworming camp, health camp, vaccination camp, and farmers training regularly.
- Distribution of superior breeding males to the selected farmers and exchange as per need to avoid inbreeding.
- Distribution of Concentrate Mixture to breeding bucks, pregnant as well as lactating does.
- Mineral supplementation from the project to all the goats as per need.
- Assistance to the farmers for sale of goats on live weight basis.
- Periodical review of the activities of the project by the Director of Research Extension and Farms, WBUAFS, Kolkata.
- Collection and analysis of data.

